

Our Mission

The ULM Foundation solicits, receives, and administers private gifts for the benefit of the University of Louisiana at Monroe, its faculty, and its students. The ULM Foundation also supports the advancement of the university by acquiring immovable property for future acquisition by ULM. Established in 1961, the ULM Foundation is a private non-profit organization dedicated to the growth, development and enhancement of the University of Louisiana at Monroe.

Foundation Objectives

- To assist the university in attracting outstanding students by providing scholarship aid
- To provide funding to the university for the purpose of enhancing academic programs
- To assist the university in attracting and retaining high quality faculty through salary enhancements
- To sell, use, manage, lease, mortgage, or otherwise encumber immovable property for the future acquisition by the university through the state's capital outlay budget.
